

Curriculum Vitae

---

Personal Details

Name:	Maximilian Daniel Christopher Hanusch
Place of birth:	Muenchen
Citizenship:	German

---

Education

09/2018	Technische Universitaet Muenchen Studies: Environmental Planning and Ecological Engineering Degree: Master of Science Areas of Specification: Terrestrial and Aquatic Ecology, Island Biogeography, Plant Sciences
02/2015:	Universitaet Augsburg Studies: Geography Degree: Bachelor of Science Areas of Specification: Alpine Biogeography and Physical Geography

---

Experience

10/2018 – 04/2019	Researcher at Terrestrial Ecology Research Group, TUM
11-12/2017	Visiting Graduate Student at Universidad de La Laguna, Tenerife and field research
2016+2017+2018	Instructor for undergraduate courses in Botany and Plant Determination + Diversity and Evolution of Mosses, TUM
2016 – 2018	Voluntary work and Graduate Assistant at Botanical State Collection Muenchen
04/2016 – 07/2018	Graduate Assistant at the Chair for Terrestrial Ecology and at Plant Biodiversity Research Group, TUM
07/2014 – 2/2015	Student Assistant at the Chair of Biogeography, Universitaet Augsburg

---

Talks and Posters

12/2019	Poster Presentation at miCROPe Conference, Vienna, Austria
08/2018	Oral Presentation at FloraMac Conference, Funchal, Madeira
05/2018	Oral Presentation at iMoss Conference, St. Petersburg, USA
04/2018	Poster Presentation at BLAM-Jahrestreffen, Frankfurt, Germany

---

Scholarships

2018	iMoss Trainee Fellowship, National Science Foundation
2017	Erasmus+ Scholarship, European Commission

---

Skills

Computer skills:	Basic: Linux-based Software, Python Advanced: R, ArcGIS, QGIS, Microsoft Office
Additional skills and experiences:	European Scientific Diver Certificate (ESD) Bird Ringing License Founding member of the University Club for Bird Protection Freising (LBV e.V.)
Languages:	English: fluent French: good

---

Personal Interests

- Hiking, carnivorous plants, photography, birding